Future Sermon Topics

Sun. January 29th

◆ 10:00am Rt. Rev. Peter M. Buss - "It is written..." Joshua was called to "meditate on the Book of the Law." Josiah reformed the whole kingdom when they found the Book of the Law and discovered they were not following its commands. The Lord responded to a young man who asked about receiving eternal life, "What is written in the Law?" The Lord consistently urges us to return to the Word and base our lives on the life-giving truths recorded there.

Sun. February 5th

◆ 10:00am Simpler Service

"Duties of Love (Part 1) – Love of Country" In this series we will explore the duties and responsibilities one must fulfill in order to honestly be able to say "I love ... my country... my spouse... my God."

A Word for the Week

"The coming of the Son of Man can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip. When he left home, he gave each of his servants instructions about the work they were to do, and he told the gatekeeper to watch for his return. You, too, must keep watch! For you don't know when the master of the household will return.... Don't let him find you sleeping when he arrives without warning. I say to you what I say to everyone: Watch!" (Mark 13:34-37)

"Our intermediate self senses what is going on in our outward self as if someone were reporting on it. The Lord was aware of everything that was happening and recognized clearly the nature and source of everything that emerged in him. If any evil monopolized the emotions of his outer self or any false idea monopolized his thinking, for instance, he inevitably knew what its nature was and where it came from. He could also tell exactly which evil spirits were stirring it up, and how, besides much else. These kinds of details and countless others are not hidden from angels and are only barely concealed from people on earth who have a heavenly type of perception. Still less would they escape the Lord." (Arcana Coelestia 1701)

Have a blessed week!
