A Word for the Week:

*“And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations” (Rev. 22:2)
The “leaves of the tree” symbolize rational truths, “Nations” symbolize people governed by goods and the accompanying truths, and in an opposite sense people caught up in evils and the accompanying falsities. Here they symbolize people caught up in evils and the accompanying falsities, because we are told that the leaves were for healing them, and people caught up in evils and the accompanying falsities cannot be healed by the Word, because they do not read it. However, if they have the judgment, they can be healed by rational truths. Rational truths are truths which most readily welcome spiritual truths, for a person's rational mind is the first receptacle of spiritual truths.*

Indeed, seated in a person's rational mind is his perception of truth in a form that the person does not himself see by deliberation, as he does the ideas that reside beneath his rational mind in a lower level of thought that is connected with his outer sight. (Apocalypse Revealed 936)

Have a blessed week!
