Future Sermon Topics

Oct. 15th - "Attitude Problems" Part 2 - Entitlement - What do you really deserve and why? Are you ever entitled to something that another must give to you for you to have it? What is the effect of this mentality on society today.

Oct. 22nd - "Attitude Problems" Part 3 - Inconsideration - "Some people are just sooo inconsiderate". How much attention should we pay to the way we effect others by the way we live our lives?

A Word for the Week

"It has not yet been realized that divine providence focuses on our eternal state at every step of our journey. It cannot focus on anything else because Divinity is infinite and eternal, and what is infinite or eternal or divine is not in time. It therefore sees the whole future as present. Since this is the nature of Divinity, it follows that there is something eternal in everything it does, overall and in detail.

People who think in terms of time and space find this hard to grasp, though, not only because they love temporal matters but also because they think in terms of what is present to people in the world and not what is present to people in heaven. This latter is as remote from them as the ends of the earth. However, people who are engaged with divinity base their thinking on the Lord and are thinking in eternal terms even while they think about what is present to them; so they say to themselves, "What is anything that is not eternal? Aren't temporal things nothing at all by comparison, and don't they become nothing when they end?" What is eternal is different. It simply is because there is no limit to its being. (Divine Providence 59)

Have a blessed week!
