Announcements:

Rev. Elmo Acton will be leading our worship service next Sunday. Elmo is currently the Assistant to the Pastor at the Oak Arbor New Church. He will be in town until Friday the 27th. I'm sure he would love an invitation for lunch or dinner.

Clergy Meeting Report

After hearing from several people about their preference for a day and time for this report, I have selected Sunday, July 29th after church.

Building Renovations

It looks like we will begin renovating the old manse in the beginning of August, and we expect the work to take about a month. Two things: 1) Prior to the work we will need all able bodies to help move stuff out of the building and into a storage container. 2) Me and the renovation committee are all still very interested in your thoughts and ideas. Please contact us if you have any thoughts... especially about possible uses for the various spaces so we can incorporate those ideas into the building process itself. Thanks!

A Word for the Week:

“It is utterly inconceivable that any self-love should exist within the Divine, causing Him to require such actions for His own sake.

Rather, they are required for man's own sake, for if someone possesses humility he is able to accept good from the Lord, since in that case he has been parted from self-love and its evils which stand in the way of his accepting it. Therefore the Lord desires a state of humility in a person for that person's sake, because the Lord can flow in with heavenly good when that state exists in him. The same applies to worship and thanksgiving (praise).”

(Arcana Caelestia 5957)

Have a blessed week!
