Building Renovations

It looks like we will begin renovating the old manse in the beginning of August, and we expect the work to take about a month. Two things:

- 1) Prior to the work we will need all able bodies to help move stuff out of the building and into a storage container.
- 2) The renovation committee and I are all still very interested in your thoughts and ideas. Please contact us if you have any thoughts... especially about possible uses for the various spaces so we can incorporate those ideas into the building process itself. Thanks!

A Word for the Week

No one who is compelled to think that which is true and to do that which is good is reformed, but instead thinks all the more what is false and wills all the more what is evil. This is so with all compulsion, as may also become clear from all the experience and lessons of life, which when learned prove two things - first, that human consciences will not allow themselves to be coerced, and second, that we strive after the forbidden. Furthermore everyone who is not free desires to become so, for this is his life. From this it is evident that nothing is in any way pleasing to the Lord that is not done in freedom, that is, spontaneously or willingly. For when anyone worships the Lord under circumstances in which he is not free he worships Him with nothing of himself. In his case that which moves the external is the external, that is, it is moved under compulsion - the internal being non-existent, or else incompatible, and even contradictory. When a person is being regenerated he compels himself from the freedom the Lord imparts to him, and humbles, and indeed afflicts, his rational, so that it may submit itself, and in consequence he receives a heavenly proprium. This proprium is then gradually perfected by the Lord and it becomes more and more free, so that as a result it becomes the affection for good and for truth deriving from that good, and possesses delight. And in that affection and delight there is happiness such as the angels experience

(Arcana Caelestia 1947)

Have a blessed week!
