Announcements:

Pastor's Office: Just a quick note to say that Pastor Alan's office is temporarily in the Boker room while the renovations are completed. Also, apologies to all of the people who do the chancel flowers as there are several items from his office in your space for now.

Autumn Classes: The Pastor would like to get your thoughts about topics for classes for the upcoming season. Please let him know if there are any specific topics that you would be really interested in. The two ideas on the table so far are:

- 1) The Doctrine of the Lord - Who exactly is the Lord and how did His incarnation effect our salvation?
- 2) Systematic Theology - Theology should work like a puzzle without any missing pieces. How does it all fit together without contradiction? How can God be pure mercy, and yet there is and eternal hell? Please tell the pastor if you have any ideas for other topics! Thanks.

A Word for the Week:

To the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph. I cried out to God with my voice--To God with my voice; And He gave ear to me. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord; My hand was stretched out in the night without ceasing; My soul refused to be comforted. I remembered God, and was troubled; I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah. You hold my eyelids open; I am so troubled that I cannot speak. I have considered the days of old, The years of ancient times. I call to remembrance my song in the night; I meditate within my heart, And my spirit makes diligent search. Will the Lord cast off forever? And will He be favorable no more? Has His mercy ceased forever? Has His promise failed forevermore? Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has He in anger shut up His tender mercies? Selah. And I said, "This is my anguish; But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High." I will remember the works of the LORD; Surely I will remember Your wonders of old. I will also meditate on all Your work, And talk of Your deeds. Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary; Who is so great a God as our God? You are the God who does wonders; You have declared Your strength among the peoples. You have with Your arm redeemed Your people, The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah. The waters saw You, O God; The waters saw You, they were afraid; The depths also trembled. The clouds poured out water; The skies sent out a sound; Your arrows also flashed about. The voice of Your thunder was in the whirlwind; The lightnings lit up the world; The earth trembled and shook. Your way was in the sea, Your path in the great waters, And Your footsteps were not known. You led Your people like a flock By the hand of Moses and Aaron. (Psalm 77)

Have a blessed week!
